Sir

I have the honour to state that consequent on the transfer of Mr A Mariappa Personal Assistant to the undersigned as Amildar, Shorab Taluk, there was no officer who could conveniently be placed in additional charge of his duties except Mr N Choodappa, Special Revenue Officer, North Range and as such he was placed in charge of the duties of the Personal Assistant from the date of relief of Mr A Mariappa viz 3-4-1946 afternoon and has since then been attending to this work in addition to his own viz Revision of Assessment As this was an additional work which devolved upon him, the Municipal Council have at their meeting held on 23-8-1946 resolved that he may be permitted to draw the Duty Allowance of Rs 50/- per month attached to the post of the Personal Assistant also during the period he was in additional charge thereof A copy of the Council resolution is enclosed herewith for favour of sanction of Government

Council Proceedings dated 23-8-1946

Subject No 38

Mr G V Ramachar observed that Mr Cheedappa was already drawing an allowance of Rs 75/- per month as Special Revenue Officer and now the recommendation was to give the duty allowance of Rs 50/- per month attached to the post of the Personal Assistant as he was also attending to the work of the Personal Assistant He wanted to know the same was permissible since there was no sanction of the Council putting him in charge of the Personal Assistant's work

Mr Narasimha Sastry Devudu observed that if the rules permitted the giving of two allowances, then Mr Cheedappa might be permitted to draw the duty allowance attached to the post of the Personal Assistan

Mr G V Ramachar observed that the fact of Mr Cheedappa attending to the work of the Personal Assistant was brought to the notice of the Council only when an occasion arose, viz , when he had to be given the duty allowance of the post and that he was doing the work of the Personal Assistant without proper sanction If there had been any necessity for this, the fact of his attending to the work of the Personal Assistant ought to have been brought to the notice of the Council immediately he was asked to do so by the Commissioner Now it was too late to consider this point and since he was given allowance of Rs 75/- per month, he need not be given this allowance of Rs 50/- per month

Messrs D Venkataramanappa, G Nanjappa and M K Narayana Iyer observed that since Mr Cheedappa had actually attended to the extra work he might be given the duty allowance of Rs 50/- attached to the post of the Personal Assistant after obtaining previous sanction of the Government as contemplated in M S R

Res - The Office Note to permit Mr Cheedappa to draw the duty allowance of Rs 50/- per month from the date he was attending the work of the Personal Assistant is approved
